

WINE

CINQUANTE-CINQ

VIIGNIER 2018

Cinquante-Cinq Viognier (pronounced "Sank-on-sank Vee-own-yay") is such a great summer wine!

This bottling is 100% Viognier aged on its lees for six months which adds a slightly creamy nuance. Unsurprisingly, the aromatic intensity of this wine spills from the bottle the second you pop the cork. The aromatics liken to a peach and tangerine orchard in bloom with hints of honey dusted on the fruit. With the weight of a Chardonnay and slightly lower acid than one, Viognier can be really fun to pair with food, but be careful not to overpower the delicate notes of this wine.

Something like clementine and honey glazed pork chops over creamy polenta

would pair quite nicely. Cheers!

From the Cheese Curd Capital of Wisconsin I give you this week Ellsworth Cheese Curds! Ellsworth Cooperative Creamery began in the early 1900s with a collective of 30 local farmers whose focus was on butter and eggs only. It wasn't until 1965 that they decided to get into the cheese-making business with cheese curds becoming their most popular item, and little did they know they were destined to become the Cheese Curd Capital as declared by the governor in 1983. What are cheese curds you ask? Also known as squeaky cheese, cheese curds are made by coagulating milk in a process called curdling. The coagulation can be caused by adding rennet or any edible acidic substance such as lemon juice or vinegar, and then allowing it to coagulate. The increased acidity causes the milk proteins to tangle into solid masses, or curds. These little morsels are absolutely delectable, and easy to just snack on right out of their resealable bag. Fair warning, it's real easy to finish the 5oz bag in one sitting, or you can take your cheese curds to the next level by breading and frying them and making cheese curd mozzarella bites. Available in Garlic and Cajun both flavors of Ellsworth will be on sale this week for only $2.99, usually $4.99! Cheers and Bon Appetit!
