BROADSIDE MERLOT MARGARITA VINEYARD 2019

Broadside wines have always presented an incredible value and represented the quality coming out of Paso Robles. Their Merlot, in particular, stands out as a stunning example of single vineyard, Bordeaux-inspired California wine. 89% Merlot is highlighted by the addition of 11% Cabernet Sauvignon from Margarita vineyard in the southernmost sub-appellation of the Paso Robles AVA. After 15 months in French oak, the resulting wine is both complex and approachable with aromas of raspberry, cedar cigar box, rosemary, and thyme. Bright acidity lifts a palate of black cherry and fresh cranberry, with hints of cacao and subtle spice. Have a glass with roast beef, herb-crusted pork loin, or cheeses such as blue or brie. Cheers!

This week's food pick is an exceptional line of flavor infused goat cheeses with groovy names and far out flavors. Cypress Grove dairy farms from California opened its doors in 1983 by Mary Keehn, a self-proclaimed "serious hippie," who traveled abroad to France to learn the art of cheesemaking from the masters themselves. Upon her arrival home it was clear she was inspired to create unique flavor combinations with fresh goat cheeses that were suited for the adventurous palate. With flavors such as Purple Haze, made with lavender and fennel, and my personal favorite Sgt. Pepper, made with chilies, curry and harissa, or Psychedillic infused with fresh dill, these cheeses are sure to awaken your tastebuds. Usually $7.99 per 4oz disc, all three flavors will be on sale this week for only $5.99! Try them alongside an IPA or a crisp white wine like Sauvignon Blanc and Pinot Grigio. Cheers and Bon Appetit!
