CATENA DV HISTORICO RED BLEND

For nearly a century, Catena Vineyards in Argentina has masterfully identified the most pristine terroirs of Mendoza's higher altitudes. The Catena DV Historico Red Blend is made in honor of Catena's founder Don Domingo Vincente Catena. In the 1930s he was renowned for his bold red blends that were regarded as the finest reds of the Mendoza region. The blend of 75% Malbec, 19% Bonarda, and 6% Petit Verdot is grown in an array of soils including calcareous, clay, and alluvial, from four vineyards sites that all sit at elevations ranging between 3000 to almost 4800 feet above sea level. Bold, rich fruit notes of blueberry, currant, and cassis mingle alongside earthier nuances of forest floor and black tea leaves. There is incredible weight and texture to the wine with bold tannins that pack grip but still finish smooth, with a great balance of acidity and a finish that just goes on and on. Try this alongside a steak with caramelized onions, a rack of lamb seasoned with rosemary, or grilled root vegetables.
