AMPELEIA UNLITRO 2021

This holiday season, reach for one of my go-to Tuscan red blends. Winemaker Elisabetta Foradori, whose work with the Teraldego grape has earned her fame among the wine community, works with organic, biodynamic, low sulfite methods. Unlitro is a blend of Carignano, Mourvèdre, Sangiovese, and Alicante Bouschet from the youngest Ampeleia vines and bottled in a handy liter-sized format, so there will be an extra glass to go around! This is a wine with personality that expresses the unique climate and soils of the Maremma region of Tuscany, close to the sea. Crunchy red cranberry and strawberry are highlighted by floral nuances with gentle tannins and a hint of spice. It would be a beautiful pairing with a root vegetable tarte tatin and mushroom or beef wellingtons. Cheers!
