

INNOCENT BYSTANDER PINK MOSCATO 2017

Imagine spooning-up the best flavors of a gorgeously ripe red/blue summer fruit salad – wild raspberries, juicy chunks of watermelon, sliced strawberries, and blueberry juice. Give those flavors some natural spritz, just the right level of sweetness, and an electric fuchsia hue, and you've got Innocent Bystander's Moscato! This delicious bottling from Victoria, Australia is an excellent social sipper, a delight with a dessert of fresh berries and cream, and the ultimate pairing with fruit crêpes lightly sprinkled with Gorgonzola!! Keep a bottle on-hand for when you need a slightly sweet choice that everyone will adore!

Fall is truly in the air this week as we say hello to cooler crisp weather. I for one love all the foods and flavors that come along with the change of seasons and nothing screams autumn more than apples. This week's food feature is apple butter by Honeyville farms in Durango, Colorado. I dare say this is as close to Grandma's recipe as it gets, using Colorado apples and an abundance of freshly ground spices. Perfect for spreading on toast or an English muffin in the morning or try glazing a pork tenderloin with caramelized onions for a perfect fall feast. Usually $7.99 per 10.5oz jar the Honeyville apple butter will be on sale this week for $6.99. Cheers and Bon Appetit!

Odyssey Beerwerk

While I'd be remiss not to highlight a pumpkin beer this month, there's really only one that I tend to return to year after year. For the fifth fall in a row, Odyssey Beerwerks has released its seasonal porter, Fluffy Pumpkin, to be enjoyed across Colorado's front range. The pour is midnight black topped by a billowing beige head with an aroma that hints at Fluffy Pumpkin's adjunct ingredients in the form of pumpkin lending an earthy background to complement the chocolate base, vanilla and marshmallow a balancing sweetness, and autumnal spices that encapsulate the beer in a layer of pie crust. On the palate, marshmallow smooths out the roasted, chocolate porter base paving a path for spice flavors to shine such as nutmeg and allspice that linger throughout the finish. Muse over all those nights spent around a campfire this summer with a 6-pack of Odyssey's S'more in a can, Fluffy Pumpkin. Cheers!
