

DOMAINE DES CHERS
JULIÉNAS VIEILLES
VIGNES – 2017

Jamie With the holidays right around the corner, it's never too early to start thinking about the perfect red wine to accompany your family gatherings. While Pinot Noir is an obvious choice to pair with your holiday meals, Cru Beaujolais can provide a unique alternative when looking for medium bodied, low tannin red that lends itself to many of the classic flavors you'll find this time of the year. Juliénas is one of ten Crus within the appellation of Beaujolais, often producing wines with darker fruit concentration and slightly more tannic structure. Black currant, raspberry preserves, cedar, and spice make this bottle a fantastic pairing for turkey and cranberry sauce, glazed ham, or (my favorite) homemade cherry pie. Cheers!

Who doesn't like a good compliment? This week I'd like to introduce to you a new product on our shelves; Rutherford & Meyer fruit pastes, the perfect compliment to enhance your cheese tasting experience. Rutherford & Meyer has been crafting fruit pastes in New Zealand using all-natural fruit since 1996. With flavors such as apricot, pear, quince and pomegranate, these pastes are sure to rouse your taste buds and kick your cheese's flavor profile into high gear. Try the pear with a blue cheese, or apricot with brie, this company makes it easy with pairing ideas printed right on the label. Usually $5.99 all Rutherford & Meyer fruit pastes will be on sale this week for $4.99. Cheers and Bon Appetit!

Left Hand Brewery

Left Hand Brewery out of Longmont, CO turned a quarter century old this year and to celebrate they've released their 25th Anniversary Imperial Stout. Weighing in at 12.1% ABV, this is Left Hand's heaviest beer to date as well as one of the most modestly crafted having been made with only a few basic ingredients. On the nose there's no hiding this stout's imperial nature but beneath the heat lies a chocolate pool of sweet dark fruits and bitter coffee beans accented by subtler notes of licorice and roasted nuttiness. Pronounced flavors of sweet chocolate and fruits like plum and cherry subdue any alcohol heat upfront with the help of rolled oats that cushion the otherwise intense mouthfeel. Near the finish, more bitter flavors of espresso, baker's chocolate, and toffee leave the taste buds with a roasted tinge and slight imperial warmth. Not cripplingly rich in flavor or searing with alcohol heat, this stout's profile remains sapid and proper throughout every sip. Come pick up a 4-pack of Left Hand Brewery's 25th Anniversary Stout while it's still around. Cheers!
