

CHATEAU DES ERLES - CUVÉE DES ARDOISES FITOU 2016

While you might not be familiar with the Fitou appellation in the Languedoc region of southern France, you may be familiar with the grape blend that is typically used for the reds of the region. The Syrah, Grenache, and Carignan that make up the blend for Chateau des Erles Cuvée Ardoises Fitou are also the dominant grapes of the Rhone reds, although stylistically the wine is more similar to reds of Corbieres. These wines are rustic, with leather, herbs, wood and spice on top of black and red fruit. Although ripe, there is a nice freshness to this medium bodied wine and the tannins are moderate and nicely balanced. This wine is a great pairing for all of your winter dishes, especially with roasts, stews, and one pot meals. Cheers!

Grimm Brothers

As we power through these early 2019 cold snaps, you or someone you know might be looking to get into dark beer - but a lot of what's on offer is a little intimidating. That's where Midnight Strikes from Grimm Brothers in Loveland comes in. This traditional German-style schwarzbier pours almost completely opaque, with a color of dark maple syrup. The aroma and flavors are very understated, making this a crushable brew that still gets you those toasted bread malt notes and a subtle sweetness present in heavier dark beers. A tiny zing of Noble hops on the back end finishes each sip. If you're not ready to jump into big dunkels or porters yet, this is your stepping stone to the Dark Side. Come on in today and pick up a fresh 6pack! $9<sup>99</sup> for 6pk
