

INNOCENT BYSTANDER
PINK MOSCATO 2018
For a long time this has been one of my favorite little sippers for any occasion. Light in alcohol at 5.5% and jam packed with a fruit medley of strawberry, peach and melon with punchy little bubbles that just make you smile. The nose is sexy and fun with notes of rose petal, lavender and hints of pink grapefruit popping out of every little bubble. This little sparkler will be perfect for you and your valentine to share this week with a dark chocolate mousse, raspberries, strawberries and a touch of cream.
- Cheers!

Valentine's Day is upon us and this is one week where you don't want to forget to bring home the sweets to your sweetheart. This week's food pick is all about the love of chocolate with Chocolove bars made right in Boulder. Sourcing the finest chocolate from Belgium, Chocolove follows in the traditional footsteps of European chocolate making. With multiple flavors to choose from these chocolates are perfect to pair alongside your favorite bottle of stout or try with a bottle of Ruby or Tawny Port. Usually $3.99, all Chocolove 3.2oz bars will be 2 for $5 this week only! Happy Valentine's Day. Cheers and Bon Appetit!

GREAT DIVIDE
Orabelle is back! This Belgian tripel is one of Great Divide's most sought-after seasonal offerings, and sure to please anyone looking for a boozy but refreshing ale for early spring. It pours the color of pale honey with a thin head of fine, white foam that hides a spicy and yeasty aroma. Up front, you're treated to a smooth, slightly funky Belgian character that dissolves into a mellow, honey sweetness with hints of banana bread and rye from the three-grain mash bill. There's a slight hint of citrus and hops on the finish and a definite warming as it coats your throat from the 8.3% ABV. It's like a Blue Moon that grew up, got a master's degree, and started going to the gym. Come on in today and pick up a 6 pack! Cheers!
