

RED HEADS STUDIO - YARD DOG RED 2016

When the temperatures plummet and snow is falling, my taste for wine turns to heavier, richer fruit forward reds. If you're looking for a wine to take the sting out of the cold this week, I have just the wine for you. Red Heads Studio was born when a few 'flying winemakers' banded together to make wine styles that they liked and wanted to drink. Bored with working as junior winemakers at big wineries in Australia, they wanted to try their hands at making some of the great styles they had been making at different estates in Europe. They bought an old café called 'Red Heads' and so began the space for making wine. For the Yard Dog Red from McLaren Vale, they were recreating a Bordeaux style blend of Cabernet Sauvignon and Merlot, with a little added underdog varietal Petit Verdot. The resulting wine is a blast to drink with luscious red fruit in an easy to drink style. Red and dark fruits mingle together with a little oak spice, floral notes, and dusty minerality to balance it all out. The full bodied style with round, ripe tannins is just a blast to drink on these snowy days. Cheers!

This week's food pick is a tasty little spread from the picturesque Dalmatian coast of Croatia. Be sure to grab a jar, or several, of the Dalmatia fig cocoa spread. Made with a blend of Adriatic figs along with Fair Trade cocoa, pure cane sugar, fruit pectin and citric acid, this spread is as healthy as it is delicious. Fat free and Non-GMO verified, the Dalmatia fig cocoa is quite versatile, ideal for adding onto baked goods, over ice cream or fruit. I personally love to spread this as an accompaniment onto soft and hard cheeses such as brie, Manchego or aged cheddars (we have those too!), to make for the perfect sweet and savory bite. Usually $7.99 per 8.5oz jar this spread will be on sale this week only for $4.99!! Cheers and Bon Appetit!

SPICE TRADE BREWING

A tropical Belgian ale isn't something you see every day, but Arvada's Spice Trade Brewing isn't afraid to mix and match flavors from distant regions of the world, and their Tamarindus Indica Dubbel, clocking in at 7.5% ABV, is one of the best examples of that spirit. Brewed with the tamarind fruit of India, this oddball brew pours a rich oak color and is partially transparent with a generous head of foam. The nose immediately demonstrates a pronounced citrus character with just a hint of the usual Belgian funk. The tangy, not too sweet tamarind is the most assertive and recognizable flavor, supported by softer notes of caramel and Indian spices. It all finishes with a flourish of floral hops on the back end. This is definitely one of the quirkiest and most interesting beers you'll taste this year. Make sure you stop in today and grab a 6 pack of this wonderful brew! Cheers!
