NATHAN'S SELECTION

THOMPSON ESTATE CABERNET/MERLOT MARGARET RIVER 2014

Western Australia may produce the most impressive New World wines you have never explored. Many call most of the region's red wines a synthesis of Napa and Bordeaux in both selection of varieties and wine style, and nearly all who discover the wines from this region find them simply delicious. This perfectly mature 2014 Cabernet/Merlot blend boasts the slightest hint of refreshing menthol atop a ripe and tangy mélange of black fruit, all nestled within a round and smoothly textured body that has no angles to be found. Everything from the driest dry rub pork ribs, to your mama's meatloaf, will be right at home with this delicious Western Australian red.

AMELIA'S

This week's food pick is a sweet and savory sauce that will have you roaming through your fridge and kitchen pantry to find every possible vessel to spread it on. Be sure to stop by our food fridge and pick up a jar of Fat Toad Farm's Goat's milk caramel sauce in both Original and Salted Bourbon (my personal favorite) flavors. These award-winning sauces are rich and creamy with an added touch of tanginess from the goat's milk making for an impeccably balanced combination of sweet and savory. Try spreading it on breakfast toasts, crepes, waffles, or drizzle it on fruit, ice cream, yogurt, coffee or over your favorite cheeses for an added touch of flavor. Your taste buds will be sure to thank you. Usually $5.99 for the Original and $6.99 for the Salted Bourbon, both flavors will be $2 off their original price this week only! Cheers and Bon Appetit!

ELEVATION BEER CO.

Are you sick of waking up to seeing that it's zero degrees outside and snowing? Are you scraping off your car and wishing you were anywhere but here? We thought you might be, and Elevation's new limited release, Go Higher IPA, is the perfect way to book a mini tropical vacation. It even looks like a foamy Mai Tai in the glass, pouring pale gold with lots of haze and a decent amount of foam. You'll be treated to a citrusy nose with just a hint of pine before diving into a medium-bodied pale ale with a strong malt backbone all the way through. It's balanced by a punch of bitterness and a semi-dry finish, while hints of pineapple and tangerine round out the flavor. And it's not overwhelmingly sweet and juicy like some other hazies we've tried recently. Cheers to warmer days ahead!
