

JAMIE

MAQUIS

CARMÈNÈRE 2016

The Hurtado family strategically planted their Maquis vineyard, which has been family-owned for over a century, with the Tinguiririca River on one side and the Chimbarongo Creek on the other. Nestled between these two bodies of water, the vines benefit from a local set of atmospheric conditions that are ideal for premium Carmènère production. With the expert blending talents of Eric Boissenot, who also works with multiple first growths in Bordeaux, Maquis wines exude power and elegance. Leading with aromas of black raspberry, plum, blackberry, and clove the palate is dense with dark fruit, herbs, and baking spices with fine tannins and hints of cocoa on the lingering finish. Cheers!

AMELIA

This week make all your dishes "betta, with a little feta." Kryssos Company is a domestically made line of feta cheeses that evokes the flavors and heart of the Mediterranean. Known for their firm but perfectly crumbly texture, these fetas are tangy with a little salty finish but never bitter! Available in three different flavors; original, peppercorn and tomato basil, these fetas come conveniently in pre-crumbled 4oz packages. Sprinkle them onto salads, pizzas, burgers or vegetable omelets to give your meal a little more character. Usually $4.99, the Kryssos Fetats will be on sale this week for only $2.99! Cheers and Bon Appetit!

BOOTSTRAP BREWING

Warm weather finally seems like it's here to stay. And while that's a dangerous thing to say in the front-range, we can at least enjoy it while it lasts with a bright, citrusy Lush Puppy IPA from Bootstrap. This hazy ale is brewed with real orange peels, and it pours the color of a ripe orange to match. Fruity hop aromas greet you as soon as your nose gets anywhere near the glass, and the first sip introduces you to all those hops in a big way. This may be a hazy, but it's got plenty of piney hop bite to satisfy fans of the West Coast style, with fresh citrus notes dancing around the front and sides of your palette. The finish is very clean and dry, like a frozen lemonade from the amusement park but without all the added sugar. It's a beer to pair with sunglasses, good friends, and a day at the lake. Cheers!
