JAMIE'S SELECTION

JAMIE
KRACHER PINOT GRIS
 The Kracher Winery represents a dynasty of innovation in Austrian winemaking. Wine Magazine has honored Alois Kracher with the coveted "Winemaker of the Year" title an impressive seven times! Their Pinot Gris is a newer face on our shelves and quickly became my go-to recommendation. With acacia floral notes, golden apple, pineapple, and slight herbaceous hints on the nose, and a palate that offers tangerine, honeysuckle, pineapple, honeydew melon, and meyer lemon, it's not hard to fall in love with this bottle. The mouthwatering acidity and lingering finish begs for a meal. Try a glass alongside grilled golden apple and brie flatbread, fresh vegetables, or seared scallops with herb butter.

BOULDER BEER
 June is Pride Month, and Boulder Beer is getting in the spirit with a new German-style pilsner, Gender Fluid Lager. This is a pils that doesn't mess around. It pours a nice, clean goldenrod color with a generous head of fluffy, white foam. Floral, bright, and breadly scents jump out of the glass with surprising gusto for a lager. It's almost as aromatic as an IPA. It's crisp, smooth, and crushable like a good German pils should be, but packed with flavor from top to bottom. There's an almost fruity, zesty, balanced sweetness that comes out with each sip, accompanied by malt notes and finishing drier with a satisfying pop of noble hops. A loud and proud example of the style and perfect for sharing with loved ones of all kinds. Cheers!
