GRAN SASSO – MONTEPULCIANO D'ABRUZZO 2017

During one of our recent tastings I got really excited about a Montepulciano d'Abruzzo from southern Italy. Sometimes, wines from this area in this price range lack freshness and definition since they are typically sourced from co-ops or bought in bulk. However, the Gran Sasso Montepulciano d'Abruzzo stood out for its clean and bright fruit. The difference is that owner Valentino Sciotti and his winemaker work closely with their growers in Abruzzo. Hand harvesting, partial destemming and temperature controlled fermentation ensure the high quality of the fruit. This Montepulciano d'Abruzzo is made for drinking young with delicious fresh cherry and berry fruit balanced by subtle oak and tobacco, and the approachable and forward style is balanced by good tannic structure and lingering finish. This is a perfect wine for informal gatherings and weeknight meals! Cheers!

This week's food pick is summer in a jar. Say hello to your new favorite spread; Honeyville Blueberry Peach Butter! Based in Durango, CO, Honeyville farms has been making whipped honey-based creations such as butters, jams, sauces and mixes since 1918. I adore this company and their delicious and authentically made products that you can taste the love and commitment in each jar. The Blueberry Peach is the latest addition to their fruit butter line. This product captures all the mountain flavor butter can have, using Palisade Peaches and Northwestern Blueberries that have been simmered in small kettles. Try this spread on vanilla ice cream, plain yogurts for added flavor, or mix it in with some brie or goat cheese (we have that here too). Usually $7.99 per 11oz jar, the Blueberry Peach butter will be on sale this week only for $4.99!! Cheers and Bon Appetit!
