NATHAN SONOMA COUNTY CABERNET 2015

This week we are featuring a dual threat of deliciousness as our wine(s) of the week! For almost four decades, Lyeth (pronounced "Leeth") has been crafting some of Sonoma County's most delicious and bold Cabernet-based red wines!

The Sonoma County Cabernet Sauvignon is rich and formidable, presenting a massive mélange of dark cherry, ripe plum, and lightly toasted cedar, that make it a natural partner to Garlic Grilled Steaks or some late summer Steak and Vegetable Kabobs!

SONOMA COUNTY RED BLEND 2016

The Sonoma County Red Wine is a blend of Petite Verdot, Malbec, Cabernet Sauvignon, Cabernet Franc, Carménère and Merlot, crafted and blended in the tradition of the great estates of Bordeaux. This delightfully complex red blend is a huge step up from most on the market - a full-bodied mouthfeel reveals flavors of ripe red fruit, a touch of white pepper, and a hint of dried cherry.

AMELIA

It's pretty easy getting cheesy when you have Alouette spreadable cheeses on hand! In the early 70's renowned cheese maker Jean-Noel Bongrain decided to bring his skills and love for French specialty cheeses to the States. He called Lancaster, PA home in 1974 and began creating a line of cheeses that combined traditional French recipes with flavors more suited to the U.S. palate and hence Alouette cheeses was born. Marked by their soft, velvety texture and unique flavor combinations Alouette spreadable cheeses are perfect as an appetizer with meats and crackers and are ideal for spreading on bagels and sandwiches. I personally love dipping either Snack Factory Pretzel Crisps or Dot's Pretzels (we have those too) in them. Available in a generous 6.5oz size serving all 3 flavors, Garlic and Herb, Smoky Jalapeno and Spinach Artichoke, will be on sale this week for only $5.99, usually $6.99! Cheers and Bon Appetit!
