JACQUESSON CUVÉE 742 EXTRA-BRUT CHAMPAGNE NV
 La Revue du Vin de France is a classification of the best wines of France. Six Champagne producers and only 56 domaines in all of France have received a three star distinction. When you think of the elite producers in Champagne, Jacquesson sits alongside Bollinger, Salon, and Selse - all of which have achieved the coveted three stars. Sustainable farming practices, and only organic fertilizers are utilized by the revolutionary Chiquet brothers, who have owned the property since 1974. Their Cuvée 742 is unlike other non vintage Champagne in that the best qualities of a given year are highlighted rather than hidden to create a uniform NV style. The 742 blend is 59% Pinot Noir and Meunier and 41% Chardonnay. If you're looking for a truly special sparkling wine this holiday season, look no further. Cheers!

AMELIA

This week I have a brand-new product that you can use as a dip, spread, marinade, topper, drizzle, you name it! Sosis Armenian Yogurt Dips are a flavorful and healthy condiment option that is sure to elevate any meal or snack. Perfect as an appetizer with veggies, crackers, pita or breadsticks. Use it as a condiment on your next bagel, burger or sandwich. Sosis also works wonderfully as a marinade to tenderize meats such as fish, chicken, lamb or beef. Personally, I love to take a spoonful and add a little olive oil to create a healthy creamy salad dressing with. Available in three flavors; Artichoke Dill, Smoky Jalapeno and Roasted Red Pepper, all Sosis Yogurt Dips will be on sale this week for $5.99, usually $7.99, per 8oz container. Cheers and Bon Appetit!
