

MONTEBERNARDI

'ITALIA TI ADORO'

Everyone has their favorite Italian wine region. From the world-class Nebbiolo and Barbera grown in Piedmont, to Tuscan Sangiovese blends, down to the bold Sicilian varietals in the south, you can find wine worth falling in love with throughout Italy. Yet, if you find yourself unable to decide, reach for this biodynamically grown and organically certified blend of fruit from Tuscany, Sicily, and Marche. Monte Bernardi's 'Italia Ti Adoro' combines the best characteristics of these regions, blending Sangiovese, Malvasia Nera, Colorino, Frappato, Nerello Mascalese, Nero D'Avola, AND Montepulciano. Winemaker Michael Schmelzer has flawlessly melded the best of Italy to create a bottling bursting with berry fruit and concentrated spice that is made to be your elevated everyday dinner wine. Cheers!

AMELIA

Say cheese! Be sure to take home a piece of the Ponce de Leon 6-month Manchego as you stock up on this week's featured libations. Made from 100% sheep's milk, Manchego hales from the La Mancha region in central Spain and is without question Spain's most famous style of queso. Firm and full of flavor young Manchego starts off rich and buttery and develops with a refined sweetness which you will find in this aged style. Manchego's complex flavor lends itself well to fuller bodied red wines and being made with sheep's milk gives it a higher fat content making it ideal for melting. Usually $8.99 per 8oz wedge the Ponce de Leon will be on sale this week for only $6.99. Cheers and Bon Appetit!
