

BRACK MOUNTAIN WINE CO.
BARRIQUE CABERNET SAUVIGNON 2017

Brack Mountain Wine Company's motto is to, "make artisanal wines accessible to all". This is why they decided to source the fruit for their signature Cab from Sonoma. Just west of Napa, Sonoma benefits from the coastal influence of the Pacific and often offers incredible value within the Cabernet category. Barrique Cabernet Sauvignon is sourced from two important AVAs within Sonoma: Dry Creek Valley and Knights Valley. The combination of fruit from these two very different sites creates a wine with incredible depth of flavor and complexity. Aged in French oak for 18 months, Barrique's dark berry-filled palate is framed by sweet spice nuances and velvety tannins. Accompany a glass of Barrique Cabernet with blue cheese burgers, pan-roasted veal chops with red wine sauce, or a classic grilled steak. Cheers!

Don't forget to grab some Gruyere to have on hand for when you feel like you need to breakout the fondue kit at home this week. The Grand Suisse Le Gruyere will be on sale for $9.99, usually $12.99, per 8oz wedge. Considered an "OG" of the cheese world, being made since at least 1115, Gruyere is held in high regards amongst connoisseurs. Made from 100% cow's milk this is one complex cheese, full of bold nutty nuances with a dense yet smooth texture making it ideal for melting. And no fondue can be authentic without the use of this highly praised cheese. But if fondue isn't quite your thing Gruyere is a great choice for melting onto sandwiches, or French onion soup and is sure to perfectly round out any cheese and charcuterie board. Cheers and Bon Appetit!
