

FATUM - LA MANCHA WHITE BLEND 2015

The Manuel Manzaneque Suarez Winery is located in La Mancha, Spain, one of the most underrated wine DOs in Spain. The La Mancha DO has one of the best price to quality ratios for wine in the world and Manuel Suarez takes full advantage of this attribute only using the best fruit from up to 30 year old vines. This, Fatum White 2015, meaning destiny or fate, is composed of 50% Airen, 35% Macabeo and 15% Sauvignon Blanc. The fruit is sustainably farmed in the traditional manner and the vines see virtually no chemicals during maturation and harvest. In the glass the wine is a springy straw color and boasts green fruits, field flowers and a touch of salinity on the nose. Juicy and refreshing on the palate, a wine that sings with acidity and serenades with notes of pineapple and pear that carry an even tempo through the lasting finish. Just tasty!!

This week double your eating pleasure with Excalibur's Double Gloucester, an English cheese packed with tons of flavor. Double Gloucester is a traditional, full fat, hard cheese made from the milk of once nearly extinct Old Gloucester cows, with origins tracing as far back to 1498 in the English region of Gloucestershire. Aged for a minimum of 4 months this cheese has a smooth and buttery texture with rich and nutty flavors. Perfect for slicing onto sandwiches, cubing up into a salad or shredded on top of a bowl of chili, this cheese is a perfect alternative for any recipe or craving that calls for yellow cheddar. Usually $5.99 per 7oz wedge, the Excalibur Double Gloucester will be on sale this week for $4.99! Cheers and Bon Appetit!
