

KUENTZ-BAS

ALSACE BLANC 2018

Perched on one of the highest points in Alsace, Kuents-Bas stands as a pillar of history, with over two hundred years of winemaking excellence. The winery believes in precise vineyard management and low intervention in the cellar, which creates a house style highly focused on the expression of their quintessential Alsatian terroir. Their Alsace Blanc, composed of 45% Sylvaner, 15% Muscat, 12% Pinot Gris, 12% Gewurztraminer, 12% Pinot Blanc, and 4% Chasselas is one of the best introductions to the region on the market. Floral aromatics give way to a lean, crisp palate full of stone fruit, citrus, and intense Alsatian minerality. Try a glass alongside oysters, mussels, rock lobster, fresh veggies, or a wide variety of cheeses. Cheers!

JAMIE'S WINE

WINE

As a locally owned business since 2000, it is always a pleasure to find high quality, locally made products to grace our shelves. This week's food pick is a line of pickled products made right in Louisville, CO. In 2014 proprietor Eric Vierra took his life-long passion for food and pickling and launched The Good Jar. Working with local Colorado farms, The Good Jar takes organic produce and creates relishes, preserves and pickled goods in small batches for maximum flavor and freshness. Be sure to pick up a jar of Dilly Beans, available in plain and smoked paprika for only $6.99 per 16oz jar, usually $9.99! Pickled products not only have great health benefits but are a perfect addition to a savory sandwich or as a garnish for the perfect Bloody Mary. Cheers and Bon Appetit!
