

HOLLORAN PINOT NOIR 2015

Holloran Vineyard Wines has been a small production, estate-owned winery in the Willamette Valley of Oregon since 1999. With farming techniques informed by organic and biodynamic practices, their wines reflect traditions of the Old World through unmistakably Oregon fruit. Opening with black cherry, cassis, and earthy floral aromas complimented by a harmonious palate of pomegranate, black cherry, and subtle spice, Holloran's entry-level bottling outshines many other Willamette Valley producers' single vineyard wines. Pair this intriguing Pinot with Cornish game Hen stuffed with wild rice and mushrooms, a classic Coq Au Vin, or beet salad with carrot, quinoa, and spinach. Cheers!

Be sure to put a little southern charm in your eating and snacking routine this week with one of the South's most prized styles of cheese; pimento cheese! Coined the "Pimento Cheese with Soul," Palmetto Cheese is one of the only homestyle pimento cheeses that uses real sharp cheddar and southern flavor for an authentic homemade taste. Palmetto Cheese originated about 35 years ago as a featured summer appetizer at the historic Sea View Inn of Pawleys Island, South Carolina. The Sea View Inn was also home to the summer's Lowcountry shrimp boils and Palmetto became a favorite among guests making it a forever staple on the Inn's menu. Available in three flavors, Original, Jalapeno, and Bacon, all Palmetto cheeses will be on sale this week for $5.99, usually $6.99 per 12oz container. Palmetto is the perfect addition to all the summer favorites so be sure to serve these on crackers, burgers, hot dogs, sandwiches or on your next homemade poi boy or lobster roll. Cheers and Bon Appetit!
