

SCARPETTA FRICO ROSATO 2019

There are so many reasons that I love to sell the Scarpetta label. First, because the brand has a local tie, being owned by Bobby Stuckey, former sommelier at The French Laundry and current owner and sommelier of Frasca in Boulder. And foremost, because the wines are able to capture a sense of everyday Italian culture. Scarpetta's "Frico" series is meant to be shared among family and with friends. Sangiovese, Canaiolo, and Ciliegiolo are expertly combined to create a light-bodied rosé that is crisp and refreshing. This trio of native Tuscan varieties has everything you want in an affordable rosé. The cherry and orange zest nuances of this wine will pair well with steamed mussels, grilled chicken salad, or roasted shrimp quinoa spring rolls.

This week be sure to grab the perfect condiment to compliment all your snacking needs. Sosi's Armenian Yogurt Dips, a Colorado Proud product, are a flavorful and healthy option that is sure to elevate any meal or snack. A dip, a spread, a marinade, topper, drizzle, you name it, Sosi's are as versatile as it gets. Perfect as an appetizer with a side of veggies, crackers, pita, or breadsticks, or use as a marinade to tenderize meats such as fish, chicken, lamb or beef. Sosi's is a must for me when I grill veggie and meat kebabs and I also use it to make salad dressings by adding just a little spoonful of olive oil. Available in three flavors; Artichoke Dill, Smoky Jalapeno and Roasted Red Pepper, all Sosi's Yogurt Dips will be on sale this week for $4.99, usually $7.99, per 8oz container. Cheers and Bon Appetit!
