

MAZ CAZ ROUGE 2017

As barbeques are working overtime in this August heat, you may need a red wine to stand up to the substantial char on that steak you just pulled from the fire. Luckily, Maz Caz has created the perfect Grenache-based blend to support nearly any dry-rubbed, smoked, or grilled fare you can conjure. Maz Caz, meaning "crazy in a good way" has a simple philosophy. They aim to make that one unassuming wine you had on vacation-the one that was locally made and inexpensive, yet mind-blowingly good. 20% Mourvedre and 10% Syrah provide dark fruit, structure, and a subtle peppery spice to the gamey Grenache core of this wine. Enjoy a glass with anything from grilled lamb to vegetarian shish kabobs.

Cheers!

AMELIA

This week don't miss out on snagging a piece of well aged cheese at a steal that will make you say everything is "all Gouda." Gouda, pronounced Houda, is Holland's most beloved cheese and the Van Kaas line of Goudas from the Netherlands is as authentic as it gets. Even better is the price point, making it an affordable luxury that quite frankly rivals other Goudas at much higher prices. When a cheese such as Gouda ages, it goes from being creamy and buttery to nutty and lightly sweet with crystalized deposits that are packed with flavors of caramel and butterscotch. Like really good chocolate this aged gouda takes a few seconds to fully come to life on the palate and when it does it's such a reward. Usually $7.99 per 6oz wedge, the Van Kaas Aged Gouda will be on sale this week for only $5.99! Cheers and Bon Appetit!
