

JACQUESSON CUVÉE 743 EXTRA-BRUT CHAMPAGNE NV

La Revue du Vin de France is a classification of the best wines of France. Six Champagne producers and only 56 domaines in all of France have received their top distinction or three stars. When you think of the elite producers in Champagne, Jaquesson's three stars sit alongside Bollinger, Salon, and Selsosse - all of which have also achieved the coveted three stars. Sustainable farming practices and only organic fertilizers are utilized by the revolutionary Chiquet brothers, who have owned the property since 1974. Their Cuvée 743 is unlike other non-vintage Champagne in that the best qualities of a given year are highlighted rather than hidden to create a uniform NV style. The 743 blend includes a percentage of their older reserve wines to emphasize the 2015 growing season. If you're looking for a truly special sparkling wine to accompany a festive charcuterie board or cheers to a new year, look no further than Jacquesson Cuvée 743 Extra-Brut Champagne NV!

This week's food pick is a cheese that combines two of my favorite things into one delectable bite; goat's milk and wine! Be sure to pick up a wedge of Mitica Drunken Goat, a Spanish goat's milk cheese that spends 2-3 days soaking in a red wine paste made from the Monastrell grape, hence the playful name. After its red wine bath, the cheese is then aged for two and a half months giving way to a semi-soft and creamy texture and gentle fruity flavors. The time spent in wine and the short aging process makes this a crowd-pleaser, perfect for parties or just enjoying an afternoon snacking on the porch. Try this cheese alongside a fruity red wine such as a Pinot Noir, Beaujolais, a Spanish Garnacha or a fruited sour beer. Usually $9.99 per 6oz wedge, the Mitica Drunken Goat will be on sale this week for $7.99. Cheers and Bon Appetit!
