

JACQUESSON CUVÉE 743 EXTRA-BRUT CHAMPAGNE NV

La Revue du Vin de France is a classification of the best wines of France. Six Champagne producers and only 56 domaines in all of France have received their top distinction or three stars. When you think of the elite producers in Champagne, Jaquesson's three stars sit alongside Bollinger, Salon, and Selosse - all of which have also achieved the coveted three stars. Sustainable farming practices and only organic fertilizers are utilized by the revolutionary Chiquet brothers, who have owned the property since 1974. Their Cuvée 743 is unlike other non-vintage Champagne in that the best qualities of a given year are highlighted rather than hidden to create a uniform NV style. The 743 blend includes a percentage of their older reserve wines to emphasize the 2015 growing season. If you're looking for a truly special sparkling wine to accompany a festive charcuterie board or cheers to a new year, look no further than Jaquesson Cuvée 743 Extra-Brut Champagne NV!

This week's food pick will have you saying, "Oh honey you SHOULD have." Ted Dennard took his passion for bees, beekeeping and all things honey and started The Savannah Bee Company in the early 2000s in Savannah, Georgia. Ted's love for bees has not waned in over 35 years and he has truly dedicated himself to sharing the world of bees with the masses. His time in developing the Savannah Bee Company has helped introduce new honeybee products to the market and has helped educate consumers on the integral role bees play in our ecosystem. This week all 12oz jars of Savannah Bee honeys, available in three flavors: Honey for Cheese, Orange Blossom Honey and Honey for Tea, will be on sale for only $9.99, usually $12.99. Cheers and Bon Appetit!
