

LAPOSTOLLE - GRAND SELECTION CABERNET SAUVIGNON 2018
 Lapostolle was founded in 1994 by Alexandra Marinier Lapostolle and her husband, Cyril de Bournet after they fell in love with Chile, especially the Colchagua province. The Rapel Valley, where the fantastic fruit for this week's wine hails, runs for sixty miles, from the edge of the Maipo Valley to the edge of Colchagua. Their family's roots in France and long running presence in the wine industry, since 1827, has cemented them as one of Chile's finest wine houses. This Lapostolle Cabernet Sauvignon 2018 is fascinating, with layer upon layer of notes of strawberry, plum and dark cherry. The medium-plus mouthfeel of this wine is pleasantly concentrated and silky with fine tannin and acidity. The perfect choice for a winters evening by the fire and really any red meat of hearty stew.

This week's food pick, or picks should I say, are two delectable Irish cheddars by Truly Grass-Fed Farms. Truly Grass-Fed's mission is to create the best dairy products with the highest standards in both production and ingredients; using wholesome dairy from cows living their best lives grazing outside on the greenest of pastures. These cheeses are exceptional and are non-GMO verified as well as antibiotic and hormone free. For a creamy and lightly sweet flavor try their aged cheddar or for something creamy with a slightly sharper note go for their naturally sharp wedge. Both cheeses are perfect for melting onto sandwiches, burgers, or bowls of chili and pair wonderfully with full bodied red wines or a hardy stout. Usually $6.99 per 7oz wedge both the aged and naturally sharp will be on sale this week for only $4.99! Cheers and Bon Appetit!
