

CARPINETO DOGAJOLO TOSCANO ROSSO I.G.T. 2018

Carpineto sets the bar high for sustainable winemaking in Italy. Their vineyards, olive groves, and the woods surrounding both absorb roughly 26% more carbon than their winemaking production emits. Dry-farmed, hillside vineyards in the very heart of Tuscany produce the fruit for their Dogajolo Rosso. Thought of as a young "Super-Tuscan", Dogajolo is a blend of 80% Sangiovese and 20% non-indigenous varietals- in this case, Cabernet Sauvignon. Youthful fruit makes for an approachable wine full of blackberry and cherry, while time in oak helps add complexity with notes of sweet baking spices and hints of coffee. While this wine pairs nicely with standard Italian fare such as pizza and red sauce based pasta dishes, it will really shine next to Italian pot roast served over creamy polenta, topped with shaved parmesan and flat leaf parsley. Cheers! Jamie

St. Patrick's Day is upon us, and as you grab your case of Guinness or favorite handle of Irish whiskey don't forget to bring home the cheddar! In lieu of St. Paddy's this week's food pick is two delectable Irish cheddars by Truly Grass-Fed Farms. Truly Grass-Fed's mission is to create the best dairy products with the highest standards in both production and ingredients, using wholesome dairy from cows living their best lives outside, grazing on green grass. These cheeses are exceptional and are non-GMO verified as well as antibiotic and hormone free. For a creamy and perfectly sweet flavor try their aged cheddar or for something creamy with a slightly sharper note go for their naturally sharp wedge. Both cheeses are perfect for melting onto sandwiches or burgers and pair wonderfully with ales and stouts. Usually $6.99 per 7oz wedge both the aged and sharp will be on sale this week for only $3.99! Cheers and Bon Appetit!
