

ANSELMO MENDES PASSAROS 2019

The Vinho Verde DO, located in northern Portugal, is the largest wine producing region in the country. Often, you will find Vinho Verde associated with light, lively, and lightly spritzed white wines. However, the sub-region of Monção and Melgaço in the northern part of the DO specializes in wines made from Alvarinho grape. Winemaker Anselmo Mendes and Alvarinho have been nearly synonymous since he began production in Monção and Melgaço in 1998. Through years of passion and experimentation, Mendes has created wines that consistently receive high praise from critics and wine enthusiasts alike. His Passaros bottling is a crisp white blend of 50% Alvarinho and 50% Loureiro sourced from small vineyards in the sub-region of Lima. With notes of mandarin, orange blossom, and stone fruits, this wine will compliment lemon and shaved parmesan arugula salad or pan seared Halibut with lemon butter sauce.

Cheers! Jamie

AMELIA

This week go "rogue," and say hello to your new favorite maker of blue cheese, Rogue Creamery. For 85 years Rogue Creamery has been creating tasty blue cheeses that express the beauty and flavors of southern Oregon's Rogue River Valley. Since their inception they have gained international acclaim and have earned themselves the title of "World's Best Cheese." Not only do they hold this prestigious title they're also Oregon's first benefit corporation, joining a global movement of other companies who strive to make the world a better place. This week save on their Oregon Blue and their Smoky Blue cheeses. The Oregon Blue is their signature, flagship cheese, created in 1954, and was the West Coast's first cave-aged, Roquefort-style blue cheese. This cheese is approachable and fruity, with moderate "blue" flavor and a hint of sweet forest honey. It has a rich, creamy texture and a savory-sweet finish. Usually, $7.99 per 3.5oz wedge, the Oregon Blue will be on sale this week for only $4.99. And then there is the Smoky Blue, my personal favorite, playfully inspired by Smokey Bear, this cheese is cold-smoked for many hours over Oregon hazelnut shells. This process infuses the cheese with unique aromas of barrel-aged vanilla, bread pudding, and candied bacon. You'll taste spicy-sweet flavors of honey, apple, and nectarine, plus a mild "blue" finish. Usually, $8.99 per 3.5 oz wedge the Smoky Blue will be on sale this week for only $5.99. Both these cheeses go wonderfully with robust reds such as Zinfandel or Port but will also work well alongside sweeter styled Rieslings or Sauternes. Cheers and Bon Appetit!
