

ESSER VINEYARDS PINOT NOIR

Pinot Noir is one of those varieties that seems to go with everything. You can pair it with a vast array of food, and its light, low tannin profile makes it an easy choice to sip on its own. I get requests for Pinot recommendations under $15 all the time, and it is tricky to find one at that price point that stays true to the varietal. I am a big fan of the Esser Vineyard wines because they have accomplished just this; capturing extraordinary varietal character and an Old World essence. Grown on sustainably farmed vineyards in the Central Coast region of California, this Pinot Noir has a cool climate feel, expressing dark cherries, sweet tobacco, and the slightest touch of oak. Warm weather or rain, this is the everyday red that should be swirling in your glass! Cheers! Jamie

This week as you prep for your 4th of July festivities, why not celebrate with the country's oldest cheese company? The Marin French Cheese Company has been producing artisan cheeses in rural western Marin County California since 1865. The company was founded by Jefferson Thompson and since its inception, they have been the oldest, continually operating cheese manufacturer in the United States. These cheeses are made in small-batches with traditional cultures and all natural milk sourced from local dairies within 15 miles from the creamery. This week save on their Petite Crème and Petite Truffle cheeses. These classic French inspired fromages come in perfectly "petite" 4 oz discs that pack tons of flavor. The Petite Crème is everything a Brie style cheese should be- smooth, creamy, and elegant. The velvety white rind provides a delicate, tangy finish that goes perfectly with a Chardonnay or Pinot Noir. The Petite Truffle is rich, smooth and an award-winning Triple Crème Brie speckled with black truffles for the irresistibly earthy aromas with a balanced sweet cream finish, perfect alongside a glass of bubbly. Usually $8.99 per 4oz disc, both flavors of Marin French will be on sale this week for only $4.99! Cheers and Bon Appetit!
