ASAMAI AMA NO TO "HEAVEN'S DOOR" TOKUBETSU JUNMAI 300ML

I bet you didn't know that World Sake Day is right around the corner! Technically, October 1st is the official date, but why wait? I have been promoting the consumption and appreciation of sake for years and love introducing customers to the wide array of styles and flavors within the category. Ama No To "Heaven's Door" is a serious sake that can appeal to novices and sake experts alike. The brewers show a deep commitment to local ingredients, using two types of rice grown in the prefecture where the small Asamai brewery is located. Water from an underground river, supplied by fresh snowmelt gives their "Heaven's Door" bottling a purity that is hard to match. A Tokubetsu Junmai designation means that 30% of the rice has to be milled away, but Asamai takes it further, polishing 55% of the rice husk away, allowing a delicate texture and nuanced aromas to be expressed. Medium bodied and delicate, Heaven's Door is full of pear, ripe banana, and fig intermingled with baking spices. Try alongside roasted pheasant or Yaki Udon with wild mushrooms. Cheers! - Jamie

This week's food pick infuses chili heat with honey and the combination literally has endless possibilities on what it goes best with! Mike's Hot Honey is the leading brand of honey that has a kick behind it. Infused with chili peppers, founder and maker Mike Kurtz fell in love with the flavor profile while studying abroad in Brazil where he found himself in a pizzeria where the combination was in a bottle on the table. He brought that inspiration back to the states with him when he began apprenticing at the legendary Pauli Gee's pizzeria of Brooklyn, NY in 2010. He would drizzle his homemade chili honey on their signature Hellboy Pizza, and it became an instant hit with customers. He began making small batches at customer request, sold exclusively at the pizzeria, and soon enough this inspired a whole new category for honey in the US and is now widely sold and available throughout the country. Besides pizza, this honey is awesome on so many different things. Try in a cocktail, like a margarita, on desserts, wings, side dishes like roasted brussels sprouts or with your favorite cheeses. Usually $9.99 per 12oz jar, Mike's Hot Honey will be on sale this week for $7.99. Cheers and Bon Appetit!
