PRISMA PINOT NOIR

2019

JAMIE

After almost two years of canceled and delayed wine tastings, it's long overdue that I revisit some of my staple recommendations to see if they're still as delightful as I remember. Prisma Pinot Noir most definitely is! All the fruit for this bottling is grown in a single vineyard that is certified sustainably farmed within the Casablanca Valley of Chile. Three different clones of Pinot Noir grown in clay and granite soils complimented by a cool, coastal climate combine to create a wine that is fresh and aromatic. Strawberry, Bing cherry, and raspberry with hints of oak from 10 months aging in barrel make this a quaffable wine for any occasion. Pair a glass of Prisma with cranberry spinach salad topped with toasted almonds, beet salad with arugula and balsamic vinaigrette, or an authentic Chinese beef stew. Cheers! Jamie
