

GD VAJRA DOLCETTO

GD Varja is one of Piedmont's most prized estates, and since their founding in 1972 they have set a high bar for Piedmont's many prestigious producers. Situated in Vergne, the highest village in the Commune of Barolo, the estate has 40 hectares under vine. Their wines have always been of outstanding quality and value, and very terroir-driven, whether it's from a single vineyard Barolo or a bistro-styled Dolcetto. They have always practiced organic and sustainable farming, as well as incorporating very traditional winemaking techniques and are all about minimum intervention. The 2019 Dolcetto offers a dark berry profile with black cherry and blueberry notes complimented by soft acidity and an approachable tannic structure
