JAMIE'S WINE

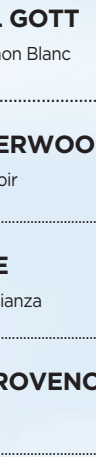

WORLD WILD WINES IMPECAVEL TINTO DOC 2021

The Dão is one of the most unique wine growing regions in the world and has long been called the Burgundy of Portugal. This wine is an elegant example of why that comparison is often made. Forget everything you know about Touriga Nacional (if you know anything about the grape) and get lost in a glass of this polished Portuguese red. Coming from roughly 30-year-old vines mostly in the Serra da Estrela sub-region of Dão, World Wild Wine's Impecavel Tinto is farmed with organic and biodynamic methods, fermented, and aged in stainless steel, with a very gentle extraction. Blackberries and blood oranges upfront lead to notes of earl grey tea with orange bergamot and dried flowers. Cheers! Jamie
